

The Covenant of Our Congregation
Adopted in 1962

We do hereby set forth the principles of the Christian faith as commonly held among us, believing that no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

It shall be our aim to bring joy to little children, instruction and high ideals to youth, inspiration to men and women in the midst of life, and comfort to those in life's later years; and to labor together for the betterment of humankind.

Our fellowship shall not be dependent upon identity of theological opinion, or of outward circumstance, or of denominational concern, but shall grow from a common loyalty to Jesus, a common commitment to serve the world we touch, and a common purpose to do justly, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with God.

Our ideal is a church of the open mind, the warm heart, the hopeful spirit, and the social vision which ever seeks to express, in all walks of life, the mind of Jesus.

Elders in Worship

Past and current leaders we call 'Elders' walk in together at the beginning of worship and sit in the front pew. This is to identify them as servants of the mission of the church and make it easy to see who you might talk to about the life of our congregation.

Joining the Congregation

To become a member of the congregation, there is a one-time orientation, a meeting with the governing board, and a reception in worship. If you are interested in the next orientation please fill out a white pew card.

Communion

Our congregation celebrates the Lord's Supper on the first Sunday of the month. All followers of Christ are invited to share this meal.

Hearing Assistance

We have a hearing aid loop system that will make it easier to hear. Ask an usher.

Church School on Communion Sundays

On Communion Sundays (the first Sunday of the month) youth in grades 3-8 remain in the service to participate in Communion while those in grades K-2 are welcome to go upstairs after the Children's Message for church school activities.

Special bulletins for children, ages 3-6 and 7-12 are available each Sunday. If the ushers are not handing them out, just ask for one.

OFFERTORY Paul Sjolund

Children of the Heavenly Father

Children of the heavenly Father safely in his bosom gather,
Nesting bird nor star in heaven
such a refuge e'er was given.

God his own doth tend and nourish,
in his holy courts they flourish:
From all evil things he spares them,
in his mighty arms he bears them.

Praise the Lord in joyful numbers.
Your protector never slumbers:
At the will of your Defender
ev'ry foeman must surrender.

Though he giveth or he taketh,
God his children ne'er forsaketh:
His the loving purpose solely to preserve them pure and holy.

Prayers of the People

Requests for prayer may be noted on a pew card and placed in the offering plate. We pray regularly for those who are ill, those who serve their country, those who hunger, and those who are our enemies. As part of our prayers this morning, we remember with thanksgiving members of our church who entered into eternal rest in previous years about this time:

David Collins

If you are aware of a departed member, whose name has not been noted near the anniversary of their death, please contact the church office.

Celebratory or Memorial Flowers

A flower calendar is posted on the right side of the Poling House entrance to the sanctuary wherein you can choose a date for donating flowers to remember a loved one or to honor a special event. Please inform the church office of your wishes. The cost of the flowers is $30 for two bouquets. You may send your check payable to Chancel Guild, c/o Marlene Risseeuw, 2140 Niskayuna Dr., Niskayuna, NY 12309.

Music Notes: Singers for today's Prelude and Musical Offering are: Lisa Backman, Nancy Davidson, Louise Dickenson, Marjorie Rush, and Kate Rose.

One Great Hour of Sharing Offering

One Great Hour of Sharing supports projects that break the cycles of poverty, hunger and thirst, as well as providing aid during times of crisis. These stories tell exactly how One Great Hour of Sharing changes lives and gives people a future filled with hope. The bulk of the One Great Hour of Sharing offering goes to support water, hunger, disaster relief, and empowerment programs. Focusing on these four areas allows One Great Hour of Sharing to address some of the root causes of suffering in our world. Your gifts make hope possible. There are envelopes in the pews for this. Checks should be made out to First Reformed Church with a memo to OGHS.

First Forum

After worship most Sundays at 11:15am in Poling Chapel, suggestions for programs are welcome from any committee or member; simply contact: Amy Brule 785-8201, Peggy King 370-1885, or Joe Doolittle 384-1700.

Church School

This year our Pastors will be leading the teaching of Church School, but we request that every member sign up for a single Sunday (or more if you desire) to help a Pastor with the lesson for that day. Sign up calendar sheets are available in Assembly Hall. Please sign up as soon as possible so the Pastors will know in advance who they will be working with, and if you have any activities you are particularly fond of...ie: stories, children in worship, crafts. Thank you so much!

Stewardship Note

This morning we took part in the dedication of our teachers. They are giving of themselves, time, and ability, to teach. Through your generous weekly offerings, we have the best education materials available, clean, warm rooms, and a giving caring community. With your offerings we are caring for the people of this congregation. Thank you for your faithful stewardship.

“Children begin by loving their parents; as they grow older they judge them; sometimes they forgive them.” — Oscar Wilde, The Picture

“Grown-ups never understand anything by themselves, and it is tiresome for children to be always and forever explaining things to them” — Antoine de Saint-Exupéry

“A baby is God's opinion that the world should go on.” — Carl Sandburg

“Critics who treat 'adult' as a term of approval, instead of as a merely descriptive term, cannot be adult themselves. To be concerned about being grown up, to admire the grown up because it is grown up, to blush at the suspicion of being childish; these things are the marks of childhood and adolescence. And in childhood and adolescence they are, in moderation, healthy symptoms. Young things ought to want to grow. But to carry on into middle life or even into early manhood this concern about being adult is a mark of really arrested development. When I was ten, I read fairy tales in secret and would have been ashamed if I had been found doing so. Now that I am fifty I read them openly. When I became a man I put away childish things, including the fear of childishness and the desire to be very grown up.” — C.S. Lewis

“The soul is healed by being with children.” — Fyodor Dostoyevsky

“Children aren't coloring books. You don't get to fill them with your favorite colors.” — Khaled Hosseini

“Don't handicap your children by making their lives easy.” — Robert A. Heinlein

“It's the children the world almost breaks who grow up to save it.” — Frank Warren

“Times are bad. Children no longer obey their parents, and everyone is writing a book.” — Marcus Tullius Cicero

“We cannot always build the future for our youth, but we can build our youth for the future.” — Franklin D. Roosevelt, Great Speeches

“Do not ask your children to strive for extraordinary lives. Such striving may seem admirable, but it is the way of foolishness. Help them instead to find the wonder and the marvel of an ordinary life. Show them the joy of tasting tomatoes, apples and pears. Show them how to cry when pets and people die. Show them the infinite pleasure in the touch of a hand. And make the ordinary come alive for them. The extraordinary will take care of itself.” — William Martin

“Anyone who does anything to help a child in his life is a hero to me.” — Fred Rogers

“Accept the children the way we accept trees—with gratitude, because they are a blessing—but do not have expectations or desires. You don't expect trees to change, you love them as they are.” — Isabel Allende

“There really are places in the heart you don't even know exist until you love a child.” — Anne Lamott

“Sweater, n. Garment worn by child when its mother is feeling chilly.” — Ambrose Bierce, The Unabridged Devil's Dictionary
