

The Covenant of Our Congregation
Adopted in 1962

We do hereby set forth the principles of the Christian faith as commonly held among us, believing that no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

It shall be our aim to bring joy to little children, instruction and high ideals to youth, inspiration to men and women in the midst of life, and comfort to those in life's later years; and to labor together for the betterment of humankind.

Our fellowship shall not be dependent upon identity of theological opinion, or of outward circumstance, or of denominational concern, but shall grow from a common loyalty to Jesus, a common commitment to serve the world we touch, and a common purpose to do justly, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with God.

Our ideal is a church of the open mind, the warm heart, the hopeful spirit, and the social vision which ever seeks to express, in all walks of life, the mind of Jesus.

Elders in Worship

Past and current leaders we call 'Elders' walk in together at the beginning of worship and sit in the front pew. This is to identify them as servants of the mission of the church and make it easy to see who you might talk to about the life of our congregation.

Joining the Congregation

To become a member of the congregation, there is a one-time orientation, a meeting with the governing board, and a reception in worship. If you are interested in the next orientation please fill out a white pew card.

Communion

Our congregation celebrates the Lord's Supper on the first Sunday of the month. All followers of Christ are invited to share this meal.

Hearing Assistance

We have hearing reinforcement units that will make it easier to hear. Ask an usher.

Child Care on Sunday

Childcare for babies through age four is available from 10am and noon in Kinderwyk, which is located in the building near the church office entry.

Church School on Communion Sundays

On Communion Sundays (the first Sunday of the month) youth in grades 3-8 remain in the service to participate in Communion while those in grades K-2 are welcome to go upstairs after the Children's Message for music and crafts.

Children's Worship Bulletins

Special bulletins for children, ages 3-6 and 7-12 are available each Sunday. If the ushers are not handing them out, just ask for one.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & ORIENTATION

CALL TO WORSHIP Bill Levering

INTROIT From the Rising Michael Tebbano

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN #457
I Greet Thee, Who My Sure Redeemer Art

*OUR NEED FOR GOD (unison)
Holy One, we confess that we have made excuses for not following your call. In our laziness, we have avoided and denied you. We do not look for you in the face of others, nor do we let others see your holiness in us. We have doubted your presence and failed to let you change our lives. Help us. Make us more complete and faithful in all that we do, we pray. Amen.

*GOD'S FORGIVING LOVE

*RESPONSE OF PRAISE
God welcomes all, strangers and friends;
God's love is strong and it never ends!

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (unison)
from the Accra Confession
We believe in God, Creator and Sustainer of all life, who calls us as partners in the creation and redemption of the world. We live under the promise that Jesus Christ came so that all might have life in fullness. Guided and upheld by the Holy Spirit we open ourselves to the reality of our world. We believe that God is sovereign over all creation. "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof."

*PASSING THE PEACE

ANTHEM What Shall I Render to My God?
Austin Lovelace

What shall I render to my God for all His mercy's store?
I'll take the gifts He had bestowed and humbly ask for more.

The sacred cup of saving grace
I will with thanks receive, and all His promises embrace
And to His glory live.

My vows I will to His great name before His people pay,
And all I have, and all I am,
upon His altar lay.

Thy lawful servant, Lord, I owe to thee what e'er is mine.
Born in Thy family below and by redemption Thine.

Thy hands created me, Thy hands from sin have set me free,
The mercy that hath loosed my bands hath bound me fast to Thee.

Praise Him, ye saints, the God of love who hath thy sins forgiv'n, till gathered to the church above, we sing the songs of heav'n.

Charles Wesley

FIRST LESSON George Davidson
Guide us, God, by your Word and Holy Spirit.

Porter, or "Sakokwenionkwas," founder, spokesperson, and spiritual leader of the Mohawk Community of Kanatsiohareke, will be speaking on the Haudenosaunee (Iroquois) of Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow. New research on the many Mohawks in our church records of the late 1600s and early 1700s will be shared at the dinner's open house and reception. Flyers are on FRC bulletin boards and information racks. Questions, last minute tickets, contact Laura Lee Linder, 281-4764.

This Saturday, Oct. 4, the theme will be "Connecting with Creation." As part of our worship, we will be blessing pets, so bring your four-legged, furry, or feathered friends (or a picture, if your companion doesn't travel well) to celebrate the bonds we have with all of God's creatures. In the Spring there will be a joint instrumental program. We look forward to an ongoing partnership with our friends in Scotia.

Fall for Handbells!

Klokken Tower Ringers is starting the season early in order to ring in World Wide Communion on Sunday, October 5! The music to enhance this service is rich and the opportunity to ring on Communion Sunday is very special for the congregation and ringers. There are still plenty of opportunities for anyone interested to learn about the handbells of 1st Reformed Church and participate in this musical program! The upcoming Advent & Christmas pieces offer lots of excitement and musical possibilities. Also, we are exploring how to use the Orff instruments and handbells together, working with the choir to add texture to their selections, and finding ways to add our talented instrumentalists to the mix! We hope that this sounds like something that you'd like to explore with us and join the fun of making beautiful music together! Please ask about our amazing history, instruments and join us! We'll happily train and welcome all age folks to our choir...the more the merrier our music!

Fall Outing October 12

The route is from the parking lot on the West Middleburgh Rd to the overhanging rock ledge (referred to as "The Dance Floor" in earlier history) over a wooded road and new trail, gaining about 600 feet in 1 1/2 miles in easy climbing. The ledge looks to the south down the Schoharie valley to the Northern Catskills. More views toward Middleburgh and the Valley North can be reached by following the trail a few hundred feet further. Bring a lunch and drink to eat together on the ledge. The trail is child and dog friendly. A sign-up sheet is available in Assembly Hall. You may also sign up to ride in the FRC van if you would rather not drive your own vehicle. Van seating is limited to 9. Any questions, please contact Nancy, 377-3573.

“God save us from people who mean well.” –
Vikram Seth, A Suitable Boy

“Hell is paved with good intentions.” – Samuel Johnson

“Uncomfortable thoughts must be got rid of by good intentions for the future.” – George Eliot, Adam Bede

“I believe that we must align our actions with our highest principles. No matter the outcome, we will have not failed if we act from our best intentions.”

“The road to hell is paved with good intentions, Captain,” Chakotay said with equal certainty.
“So is the road to peace,” Cambridge observed. – Kirsten Beyer, Star Trek: Voyager: Children of the Storm

“It is not enough that your designs, nay that your actions, are intrinsically good, you must take care they shall appear so.” – Henry Fielding, The History of Tom Jones, a Foundling

“...it’s true that some of the most terrible things in the works are done by people who think, genuinely think, that they’re doing it for the best,
especially if there is some good involved.” –
Terry Pratchett

“that man is good who does good to others; if he suffers on account of the good he does, he is very good; if he suffers at the hands of those to whom he has done good, then his goodness is so great that it could be enhanced only by greater sufferings; and if he should die at their hands, his virtue can go no further: it is heroic, it is perfect.”
– Jean de La Bruyere

“It is often said that mankind needs a faith if the world is to be improved. In fact, unless the faith is vigilantly and regularly checked by a sense of man’s fallibility, it is likely to make the world worse. From Torquemada to Robespierre and Hitler the men who have made mankind suffer the most have been inspired to do so by a strong faith; so strong that it led them to think their crimes were acts of virtue necessary to help them achieve their aim, which was to build some sort of an ideal kingdom on earth.” – David Cecil, Library Looking-Glass: A Personal Anthology

“And habits are hell’s own substitute for good intentions. Habits are the ruin of ambition, of initiative, of imagination. They’re the curse of marriage and the after-bane of death.” – Dorothy Dunnett, The Game of Kings

“How would a Good Samaritan be, if a Good Samaritan would only intend to do good?” – John Janzen

“The evil that is in the world comes out of ignorance, and good intentions may do as much harm as malevolence, if they lack understanding.
One the whole, men are more good than bad; that, however, isn’t the real point. But they are more or less ignorant, and it is this that we call vice or virtue; the most incorrigible vice being that of an ignorance that fancies it knows everything and therefore claims for itself the right to kill.” – Albert Camus, The Plague

“Most of the evil in this world is done by people with good intentions.” – T.S. Eliot
